Message From Director

Dear Student,

Welcome to the Indian Institute of Crafts and Design! Let me congratulate you for making it to the batch of 2023. It is a pleasure to share this handbook with you. Each one of you is an asset to the institution and to the country.

At IICD we value the crafts of our country and those of the world. We see immense value in sustainable actions and sincere efforts. India is renowned for its intelligence, its people, its crafts and its value systems. We are now focusing on innovation and research. Good design is an outcome of a good design process, good observation skills and responsible action. Finding sustainable solutions is the key to becoming a good designer. Our outreach programmes in rural areas helps in skill enhancement & increasing livelihoods. We will work together to make your dreams as a designer come through

While at the institute and even while you are away, you must be sincere, law abiding, dedicated and innovative for us to make the world a better place to live in. This handbook contains all the important information you need to know about the rules and regulations that you must follow during your tenure at IICD. It also contains contact information of all those you may need to contact for various purposes. I advise you to go through this book carefully and refer to it when required. It will be available online at the IICD website, under 'News and Resources' in the downloadable items.

With all best wishes,

Dr. Toolika Gupta
Director IICD

ABOUT IICD

The Indian Institute of Crafts & Design (IICD), Jaipur, was set up as an autonomous institute by the Government of Rajasthan in the year 1995 to act as a catalyst of change in the craft sector. Since October 2007, the institute is a state Government undertaking under the aegis of the Department of Industry, Govt. of Rajasthan running on Public Private Partnership (PPP) with Ambuja Educational Institute (AEI).

The institute offers Bachelors, Masters programmes with various specializations in Crafts & Design to address the needs of the crafts sector and associated industry. The degrees are awarded by RISU (Rajasthan ILD Skills University). The institute also offers a craft incubation program for 4 months and summer courses in Crafts & Design

The institute is spread over 7 acres of land and comprises of the main building housing classrooms, studios, library, workshops, resource center, administrative offices, display spaces and a hostel block consisting of the girls' hostel, mess and common rooms. The lush green campus provides an eco-friendly and healthy environment to foster overall growth.

Faculty members possess a fine blend of practical craft design experience combined with excellent academic credentials. In-house faculty members are from premier institutes like NID, NIFT, IICD, Sir JJ School of Art (Mumbai), CEPT (Ahmedabad) and MSU (Baroda). Industry professionals of repute, noted academicians and experts also participate in the teaching process and curriculum development. Artisans from across the country have also been associated with the institute since its inception. IICD has fostered linkages with many national and international colleges this enhancing the over all exposure of its students.

A. ACADEMICS

During the academic session a student is expected to observe the following:

A.1 PERMANENT IDENTITY NUMBER (PIN) & IDENTITY CARD

- A.1.1 The student is issued a Permanent Identity Number (PIN) for the period of study at IICD at the time of admission. The PIN shall be used in all the correspondence between the student and the Institute.
- A.1.2 The identity card should be carried by the students at all the times and should be presented when required by the authorities or authorised person. Misuse of the identity card and/ or any tampering or forgery shall lead to disciplinary action.
- A.1.3 In case of loss, damage, overwriting or change in particulars of the identity card, the Secretary/ Registrar (Academics) is to be informed immediately. Replacement of the card will be made in 20 days from written request and on payment of Rs.300/-.
- A.1.4 The identity card must be surrendered on completion of the course along with the 'No Dues Certificate'.

A.2 SEMESTER FEE RELATED MATTERS

- A.2.1 A fee notification letter with the fee amount is issued before the beginning of every semester. The procedure, term and conditions for making the payment of fee shall be explained on fee letter issued and also on IICD website- www.iicd.ac.in

A.2.2 A late fee of Rs.100 per day shall be charged if the payment is made after the due date mentioned in fee letter. (If the payment is made through the demand draft (DD), then the late fee will be charged till the date of receipt of DD in the accounts section) No student shall be allowed to appear for the End of Semester Exams (EOSE) in case the fee is not paid.

A.2.3 A delay in payment of semester fee without prior official permission from the Director, shall result in striking off the name of student from the rolls of the institute.

A.2.4 IICD has the right to revise the fee structure at any time. Any revision in the fee structure shall be notified.

A.2.5 The refundable component of the fee/ deposit is refunded to the student on completion of the course or from the date he/she ceases to be a student of IICD. Security deposits are refundable and are to be claimed within one year of the completion of his/ her regular studies at IICD or withdrawal of admission, whichever is earlier, after this period, security deposit will be forfeited.

A.3 WITHDRAWAL OF ADMISSION & REFUND OF FEE

A.3.1 Request for withdrawal of admission in the prescribed form is to be submitted to Registrar (Academics), IICD, Jaipur. The student shall be required to surrender the original Admission Receipt issued at the time of counselling/ admission, while applying for withdrawal of admission. No request for withdrawal of admission would be entertained without original Admission Receipt.

A.3.2 On withdrawal of the admission, fee will be refunded as per Fee Refund Policy of IICD. The details are mentioned on the institute's website. The refund policy will be applicable in accordance to the number of days from the date of commencement of the academic session.

A.3.3 The decision of IICD on matters relating to refund or withdrawal of candidature will be final. No further appeal or representation in this regard will be entertained.

A.4 ACADEMIC CALENDAR

A.4.1. At the beginning of every academic year, an Academic Calendar is released for all information regarding the commencement of semesters, semester breaks, End of Semester Exams/ Juries, and any other important events of the institute.

A.4.2 The Academic Calendar is available on the website of the Institute. Any change that may occur due to unforeseen circumstances is updated on the website as and when required. The student should adhere to the Academic calendar, and programme of activities as circulated from time to time.

A.5 ATTENDANCE

Learning at IICD is based primarily on interactive methods of inputs and the student's participation in projects, research and skill based experiences. It involves peer learning, faculty guidance and feedback, and all are critical to the student's holistic development. Any physical absence in such circumstances would mean loss of learning opportunity and continuity, which cannot be replaced by self-study under most of the situations.

A.5.1.1 Minimum 75% attendance overall is required per semester to be able to appear for the respective End of Semester Exam (EoSE). In case a student has less than 75% attendance, he/ she will not be allowed to sit for the End of Semester Exam (EoSE).

A.5.1.2 The attendance of the student shall be taken every day (online/ offline mode), at 9:30 am for the morning session and 2:00 pm for the post lunch session. The attendance shall be taken at the beginning of each lecture/ session. The student is therefore advised to be present in his/ her class before the scheduled time for the lecture/ session. Any student coming late will be marked absent. If attendance is short than 75% then student won't be allowed in the End term Juries.

A.5.1.3 The Attendance Report shall be displayed monthly. In case there is any discrepancy in the attendance observed by the student, it is solely the responsibility of the student to bring it to the notice of the respective course faculty member and course coordinator. A consolidated report of the attendance will be displayed on the notice board before the EoSE.

A.5.1.4 The students with shortage of attendance as per above will be intimated through official email.

A.5.1.5 In extenuating circumstances, the appeal of a student having attendance less than the required norms shall be examined by a committee based on the evidence and facts of the case. The recommendations of the Committee shall be placed before the Director. The decision of the Director shall be final & binding.

A.5.2 Leave of Absence

A.5.2.1 If the student is proceeding on leave or is unable to attend classes due to any reason, the student must seek prior approval of the Competent Authority as per the prescribed communication channel mentioned in Annexure 1.

A.5.2.2 In case of a student proceeding on medical leave, he/she is required to formally inform his/ her Course Coordinator and submit the doctor's advice for rest during his or her absence and a Medical Fitness Certificate within a week of resuming his/ her studies.

A.5.2.3 In case a student is absent during the evaluation of an assignment without any authorized permission, he/ she shall be awarded 'Zero' marks. In such cases, the student will have to apply for the reassessment procedure as per the guidelines of RISU.

A.5.2.4 In case of removal of name/drop out, the student may RE-REGISTER by paying fees of Rs 5,000/- within the guideline provided by the institute/ University.

A.6 EXAMINATION, ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

The feedback, assessment and evaluation of a student's work are based on multiple factors that reflect on the student's capabilities in applying acquired learning to demonstrate an overall understanding and growth.

University guidelines and norms are followed for End of Semester Examination (EoSE), Assessment and Evaluation.

A.6.1 Evaluation Methods: Evaluation shall be of two types, namely,

1. Continuous Evaluation (CE)
2. End of Semester Examinations (EoSE)

Letter grades in both shall be mentioned separately in the Grade sheet. The performance in EoSE shall be treated as a final measure of competence of the student.

A.6.1.1 Continuous Evaluation for each course will consist of total 100 marks involving 60 marks on the basis of mid-term test(s)/ assignment(s), 30 for formative assessment by concerned teacher(s), and 10 for attendance.

A.6.1.2 End of semester examination (EoSE) will carry maximum 100 marks. The scheme of examinations for EoSE for each course will be specified in the course curriculum.

A.6.2 Absolute Grading System

Following grading system will be used for the students appearing in EoSE:

Grade	Marks Range
O	90%-100%
A+	80%-89%
A	70%-79%
B+	60%-69%
B	50%-59%
C	45%-49%
P	40%-44%
F	Less than 40%

A.6.3 Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) will be calculated on the credit weighted average of the grade points obtained with letter grades countable in Grade Point Average based on EoSE.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE:

Grade marks X Credits = Grade point

SGPA (Semester Grade Point Average) =

Summation of (Grade marks X Credits) / Summation of Credits

CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) =

Summation of SGPA X Credits / total credits.

The CGPA and SGPA shall be rounded up to 2 decimal points.

A.6.4 The SGPA, CGPA Letter grades will be assigned as per table given below:

SGPA/CGPA	Letter Grade	Grade Definition
9.5 to 10.00	O	Outstanding
8.50 to 9.49	A+	Excellent
7.50 to 8.49	A	Very Good
6.50 to 7.49	B+	Good
5.50 to 6.49	B	Above Average
4.50 to 5.49	C	Average
4.00 to 4.49	P	Below Average

A.6.5 There will be no supplementary/ due paper/ special examination. The candidates can improve performance in the subsequent EoSE and performance in the next appearance will overwrite earlier performance. Student will have to prepare on his own for the improvement. Improvement in Continuous Assessment (CA) will not be permitted.

A.6.6 Conversion of CGPA to Percentage: To convert CGPA to percentage the CGPA be multiplied by 10. Thus CGPA of 7.22 will get converted to 72.2%.

A.6.7 The University will issue a complete transcript of credits, grade obtained, and SGPA on declaration of each semester result and a Cumulative Transcript showing all credit details and CGPA on the accumulation of minimum credits required for the award of Certificate/ Diploma/ Degree when EXIT is sought by the student.

A.7 INDUSTRY TRAINING & STUDY TOUR

During the course of studies at IICD, students are required to do industry internship/ training/ field study, which could be anywhere in India or even abroad. The student must obtain prior approval from the concerned coordinator before finalizing the organization for training. Study tours are also an integral part of the curriculum and it is mandatory for the students to be a part of these tours. Inability to participate in or to complete the same shall result in failure of the student in the specific course.

B. CODE OF CONDUCT

B.1 GENERAL RULES FOR GOOD CONDUCT

During the academic tenure, the student is expected to abide by the following norms:

- B.1.1 In order to enable smooth functioning of the institute and achieving the goal of global design professionals, every student is expected to maintain a high order of discipline in and out of the institute. Lapse of discipline would be viewed and dealt with seriously.

b) Saturday : 11.00 am to 4.00 pm.

It is expected from the students to observe complete silence in the KRC.

C.3 IICD ARCHIVES

IICD Archives are set up in order to create a central resource for all the work done at IICD since 1995. It aims to develop as a resource centre for various crafts and designs practiced across the country and benefit students, alumnus, artisans, faculties, industry and other institutes. The Archives consist of institutional projects and student's work along with other related journals and craft collections.

C.4 STUDENT CLUBS AND CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

C.4.1 IICD students are encouraged to participate in extracurricular activities to enhance their overall personalities. Students get encouraged to take active part in exhibitions, crafts and design related competitions, workshops, seminars and sports. Participation in student clubs, teams and various co- curricular activities give students multiple opportunities for holistic development and networking. Meeting and interacting with new people, establishing relationships with students of other departments for collaborations on projects and using the platform to showcase one's talents are some of the objectives of Students Activity Cohort at IICD.

C.4.2 There are six Student Clubs. one Team, and a Student Body at IICD. The cohort is student driven under the mentorship of faculty members. A student can participate in more than one club. The students can participate in the capacity of Club/Team Representatives as well as a part of event teams. The various Cohort comprises of:

C.4.2.1. STUDENT BODY: The managerial body of SAC IICD is there to work as an administrative and disciplinary capacity, working with all the club and team heads. The student body can be contacted at sac@iicd.ac.in.

C.4.2.1.1. NIRMAN (Event Management & Design Club): Instilling in people a value for art and design through events and activities that offer a space for everyone to explore this field in greater depth is vital in student's life. The club work in collaboration with the student body taking care of the organization, coordination and execution of events through meticulous planning with a pinch of excitement and lots of entertainment.

C.4.2.1.2. ADVAYA (Performing Arts Club): Unique or original, a concept that is deeply rooted in our DNA. The club is expressing every small gesture through performing arts, i.e., dance, music and theatre. " The performing arts club makes sure that every student body coordinates, shows up their talents either individually or in group and moves their body freely.

C.4.2.1.3. TARANG (Environment Club): The word environment stands for everything that surrounds us. The club intends to understand the environment: plants, animals, humans and their living conditions, aid its well-being and take action towards creating a more sustainable way of living at the Institute. A society that thinks and practices sustainability and circularity with practices like reusing, recycling and up-cycling.

C.4.2.1.4. AJNA (Film & Photography Club): The club believes that photography and filmography is not only about what we see but it gives birth to something unreal and something that the naked eye cannot capture. The club is responsible for organizing periodic film screenings, conducting invited talks by experts, film and photography related competitions & to facilitate screening of films made by our students..

C.4.2.1.5. SARASVA (Literary Club): The club is a vibrant and dynamic literary club at our college, dedicated to fostering a deep appreciation for literature and promoting creative expression among students. Its functioning involves conducting activities like debates and discussions about crafts and design, maintaining a blog with pre and post event releases..

C.4.2.1.6. FIGHT OVER UNHEALTHY LIFE (Sports Club): Sports are vital in shaping the individual's personality, health and fitness. The institute lays considerable emphasis on students' recreational activities and participation in various games, sports and field activities. The spacious grounds of the institute are laid out into play areas for Basketball, Volleyball, Badminton, Table Tennis, etc. The Club offers the students an opportunity to participate in a broad variety of sports and recreational activities.

C.5 MEDICAL FACILITIES

Medical Aid is available on campus. The institute has tie ups with a physician, mental health counsellor and medical insurance companies for students' well being. The same can be availed by the student as and when the need arises.

- a) A Doctor visits the campus once a week and is available on call for consultation and emergency
- b) A Psychologist visits the campus once a week. The counsellor guides students in personal and professional matters.

C.6 CAFÉ

There is a canteen & mess facility within the campus.

D. HOSTEL AND MESS FACILITY

The IICD hostel is a home away from home. It offers an opportunity to students for community living and a meaningful experience to live in a responsible way. IICD provides hostel facilities for girls on campus where all rooms are air-conditioned. IICD has tied up with the Indian Institute of Gems and Jewellery (IIGJ), Sitapura, Jaipur, to provide a well managed hostel for both boys and girls (in separate wings) at IIGJ. Hostel facility for boys is available at IIGJ campus only. IICD provides transport facility to and from IICD campus to students staying at IIGJ campus and separate transportation fee shall be charged for the same. Residents of IIGJ hostel must follow the rules and regulations of IIGJ hostel.

Hostel facility is available on a first-come-first-served basis. The residents are expected to respect the rules of the hostel, understand their duties towards other residents and those in charge of managing the hostel and food services. These are general rules and guidelines for all resident students.

D.1 AVAILING HOSTEL FACILITY

D.1.1 IICD reserves the right of admission to the hostel. Accommodation in hostel cannot be claimed as a matter of right. An undertaking has to be given by the student (format at Annexure 3) and his/ her parent/ guardian (format at Annexure 4) while applying for the hostel facility provided by IICD.

D.1.2 IICD management may deny or cancel the admission to the hostel to any student without assigning any reason; if it has reasonable ground to believe that his/ her presence would be detrimental to the interest of IICD or other students.

D.1.3 IICD hostel facility is only for the bonafide students coming from outside the city and not for the local residents of Jaipur.

D.1.4 The students will be allocated the rooms by the management, and no recommendation from parents will be entertained to change the rooms. If a student has genuine problems, then he/ she may approach the warden, who will take requisite approvals. Only after approval from the Dy. Registrar (P&C) in case of girls and Registrar (A) in case of boys, the room may be changed.

- D.1.5 There are no single occupancy rooms for students at IICD. Since the rooms are on a sharing basis, student(s) will have to arrange their own lock for the room that has multiple keys.
- D.1.6 Each resident student will be allotted a cot, a study table and chair, and a wardrobe. The student shall be required to arrange his/ her own mattress, pillow, bedsheets etc. Each student should also arrange for his/her own bucket, mug and one set of plate, bowl, fork, spoon and glass.
- D.1.7 The hostel accommodation is available only for the semester period and all hostellers are required to vacate their rooms along with their belongings during the summer/ winter break. The institute may provide a cloak room on request if available. Any student willing to avail this facility must properly pack and label their luggage. The institute will NOT be responsible for any loss or damage to the articles /baggage.
- D.1.8 For hostel re-admission a fresh application has to be filled in. The management reserves the right to refuse re-admission to any student who has violated the rules of the hostel during his/ her previous stay.
- D.1.9 A student can get the refund of caution money within one year of completion of his /her regular studies at this institute. After the expiry of this period, caution money will be forfeited.

D.2 LOCAL GUARDIAN (LG)

- D.2.1 Every student applying for the hostel is required to have a local guardian (LG) appointed by their parents at the time of admission. An undertaking (format at Annexure 5) is to be filled and signed by the parents/ guardian and the local guardian of the student. This is a necessary requirement of the hostel admission process. The LG must be a resident of Jaipur and willing to take the responsibility of the student, if and when required at the times of illness, unforeseen circumstances, emergencies, and institute holidays during semester breaks and vacations. In the case of not having a local guardian (LG), it must be clearly stated in the annexure 6.

D.2.2 Local Guardian (LG) cannot be a fellow student or a colleague of the resident student.

D.2.3 Resident students will be permitted to visit their LG on holidays or weekends as per the hostel rules.

D.3 HOSTEL ATTENDANCE

D.3.1 The warden will mark attendance of all resident students at 9.00 am and 9.00 pm everyday. Each student will also mark his/her attendance on the biometric machine everyday at the same timings.

D.3.2 Resident students must strictly respect the need for silence in their rooms and in the corridors after 10.30 pm.

D.3.3 The main gate of the hostel will be closed at 9.30 pm daily.

D.3.4 Resident students will have to return to the hostel latest by 9.00 pm. Late returning to hostel i.e after 9:30pm will attract a penalty of Rs.500 as hostel fine. If a student violates the rule of late returning to the hostel twice, she will be liable for expulsion from the hostel.

D.3.5 Students will have to take permission for staying away during night. Such permission will be granted only after receiving recommendation from guardians/ parents.

D.4 LEAVE RULES

D.4.1 A resident student who requires a leave must take prior written permission from the warden.

- D.4.2 The leave application should be submitted to the warden before 6.00 pm. No permission will be granted for the same day if application is received after 6.00 pm.
- D.4.3 Leave will be permitted on express written permission of the parents through SMS to the warden. The parents/ guardian have to mention the nature /reason of leave while submitting the application.
- D.4.4 A resident student may avail leaves for a maximum of eight nights out in a month. One 'night out' comprises one night only. The next day student will have to return to the hostel latest by 9.00 pm.
- D.4.5 Leave application for academic purpose such as craft exposure visit, internship and training, field visit etc. should have written approval from the Course Coordinator and the concerned faculty.
- D.4.6 In case, leave is availed for medical reasons; the Medical Certificate is to be submitted at the time reporting back to the hostel.
- D.4.7 In case of any special leave or leave required in an emergency or any type of exigency, the student is required to inform DR (P&C)/ DR(A). The decision for permission of such leave can be taken only by them.
- D.4.8 Hostel IN/ OUT register is maintained at the hostel gate. All residents are required to make entry in the register for movement during late hours (after 9.00 pm to 8.00 am) with reasons.
- D.4.9 IICD is not responsible for the security of the student once he /she steps out of the campus on any kind of leave.

D.5 VISITORS

- D.5.1 All authorised visitors must carry an entry pass obtained at the main gate/reception.
- D.5.2 Parents/ LG/ authorized visitors can meet the student during visiting hours.

D.5.3 Visiting hours:

- a) Weekdays : 5.30 pm to 7.30 pm.
- b) Holiday/Weekend: 9.00 am to 7.30 pm.

D.5.4 Entry to the hostel is not allowed to any visitors including day scholars.

D.5.5 In case of urgent matters, female students of IICD can enter girls hostel only with the permission from the warden and on no account shall be allowed to stay overnight in the hostel.

D.5.6 Parents/Guests of students are not permitted to stay in the Hostel.

D.6 HOSTEL STUDENTS' COMMITTEE (HSC)

D.6.1 The Students' Committee has one student representative from each academic batch, selected from amongst them. The Hostel Students Committee also has the Warden and Dy. Registrar (P&C)/ Registrar (A) as its members. The names of the student members of Hostel Students' committee will be displayed on the Hostel Notice Board.

D.6.2 An open house of students residing in the hostel may be conducted on request. The Students' Committee should send a written request for the meetings to the concerned Dy. Registrar. The Minutes of the Meeting/Open house should be submitted by the HSC.

D.6.3 Students can give suggestions on all matters concerning the hostel or the mess to HSC. These suggestions will be implemented wherever and whenever feasible.

D.7 MEDICAL MATTERS

In case of illness it should be immediately notified to the warden. Any medical emergency or prolonged illness will be brought to the notice of the parents and the LG for their immediate attention. In such cases, the LG has to take immediate charge of the resident /ward. The institute has tie ups with mental health counsellor and medical insurance companies for students' well being. The same can be availed by the student as and when the need arises.

D.8 HOSTEL AND ROOM DISCIPLINE

- D.8.1 Residents are required to maintain cleanliness in the hostel building- corridors, staircase, common room, bathrooms and their rooms. Any student found violating the rule or living in untidy and unhygienic conditions may be asked to leave the hostel and/ or a fine (minimum Rs 100/-) shall be imposed.
- D.8.2 Hostellers are required to refrain from shouting or creating distracting noises.
- D.8.3 Each resident must respect the personal space of co-resident. Cordial relations must be maintained amongst the residents. Core values of humanity must be followed always for peaceful co-existence.
- D.8.4 Resources such as water and electricity must be used judiciously. Electrical appliances, such as lights, fans, air conditioners, etc. must be switched off before leaving the room. Water taps must be tightly turned off after use.
- D.8.5 Property of the institute and co- residents must be respected. Any damage to the room furniture/ hostel property/ co-resident's property shall invite punishment/fine from the violator(s). Residents cannot move the furniture or fittings from one room to another.
- D.8.6 Induction cooking facility is provided by the institute in the common area of the hostel for residents' use. Residents are not allowed to use electric appliances like electric kettle, induction cooker, etc. in their rooms. Private cooking in the rooms is strictly prohibited.

D.8.7 Possession and/or consumption of alcoholic drinks, cigarettes and substance of abuse are COMPLETELY BANNED inside and outside of the hostel and on campus. Aiding, Abetting and Possession of any such material and activities are liable to strict disciplinary action leading to heavy fine or suspension from the hostel/ Institute.

D.8.8 Residents are not permitted to convene meetings of any sort in the hostel premises without the prior written permission of the warden. No circular/ notes should be circulated by the residents without the permission/ authorization of the warden. Disobedience of this rule will be severely dealt with.

D.8.9 The residents are advised to keep the safety of their personal belongings. Rooms and almirahs should be locked before leaving the room. Residents are advised not to keep high value things in their rooms.

The management takes no responsibility for:

- a) loss of money or any valuables owned by the residents.
- b) damage or theft of the personal belongings of the residents.

D.8.10 Pets of all kinds are prohibited inside the hostel.
